

The Holocaust in Film

Conversation with Géza Röhrig

Join us on Wednesday, March 7th for a discussion of anti-Semitic legacies and contemporary Jewish representation in Central European media with Hungarian actor and poet Géza Röhrig, the lead actor from the Academy Award winning film, Son of Saul. Dr. Günther Jikeli, Associate Professor at IU's Institute for the Study of Contemporary Antisemitism/ Borns Jewish Studies Program, will also lead a Q&A session with Mr. Röhrig.

Wednesday March 7th at 4:00 PM

IMU Walnut Room – Refreshments Provided

Sponsored by:
CEUS, REEI, IAUNRC

INSTITUTE FOR THE STUDY
OF CONTEMPORARY ANTISEMITISM